

Parkinson's Disease Awareness

Delegates completing this Parkinson's Disease Awareness course will leave with an understanding of the models for best practice in terms of caring with people who have Parkinson's Disease.

Programme/Course Content:

- Parkinson's defined
- Causes
- Key signs and symptoms
- Non-motor signs and symptoms
- Who gets Parkinson's?
- Diagnosis
- Progression of the disease
- Difficulties for everyday life
- Medications and treatments
- Communication
- Depression
- Specific considerations for care settings
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Each of our courses can be tailored to meet your team's requirements, whether introductory, intermediate or advanced. We can design the ideal solution to accommodate your team's ability, knowledge, practical experience and previous training.

Accreditation: Compliant with the National Occupation Standards for Health and Social Care Workers and satisfies the requirements of the Care Quality Commission

Further information: For more information, or to book, please get in touch.