

Safer Handling of Medication

The Safe Handling of Medication is of vital importance in the health and social care environment, and is governed by strict government regulations and a range of professionals could benefit from the teachings of this course.

Programme/Course Content:

- Principles
- Legal framework
- Responsibility, accountability and confidentiality
- Self-medication and assisted medication
- Safer handling and administration
- The “RIGHTS” to safe administration
- Teamwork
- Information sharing
- Issues and problems
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Anyone working in a position where medication is either passed to patients or in any way handled.

Accreditation: This course can be externally accredited and successful delegates can be awarded with the following optional qualifications depending upon your training requirements:

- Level 2 Certificate – Understanding the Safe Handling of Medicines (QCF)
- Level 3 Unit – Administer Medication to individuals and monitor the effects (QCF)
- Level 3 Unit – Support use of medication in social care settings (QCF)

Further information: We modify and adapt the course's content in accordance with the specific industry area in which the delegate or delegate group is currently working.

Please contact us to discuss any of your training needs.