

Stroke Awareness

Professionals working in a health and social care environment could benefit from this Stroke Awareness training course, which instils the basic knowledge and skills required to respond appropriately at the first sign of a stroke.

Programme/Course Content:

- What is a stroke?
- Types
- Common symptoms
- The Face, Arms, Speech Test (FAST)
- Mini strokes
- Risk factors
- Post-stroke effects
- Sense of loss restoration of function and treatment
- Communication
- Treatment and medication
- Approach to care
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Professionals working in a health and social care environment

Accreditation: Compliant with the National Occupation Standards for Health and Social Care Workers and satisfies the requirements of the Care Quality Commission

Further information: If you have any questions or wish to book regarding this or any other training course then please contact our friendly team by telephone or email when convenient for you.