

CLINICAL SKILLS & MANAGEMENT

Dealing with Medical Emergencies

During this intensive, one-day Dealing with Medical Emergencies training course, delegates learn how to assess the deteriorating service user and implement emergency interventions while awaiting the support of medical professionals.

Programme/Course Content

- Cardiac emergencies
- Respiratory emergencies
- Neurological emergencies
- Diabetic emergencies
- Gastrointestinal bleeds
- Summoning help and conveying information
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Health care workers in any care setting

Accreditation: Compliant with the National Occupation Standards for Health and Social Care Workers and satisfies the requirements of the Care Quality Commission

Further information: Please get in touch for more information about this course, or to book.