

CLINICAL SKILLS & MANAGEMENT

Nasogastric and PEG Tube Care and Feeding

The professional Nasogastric and PEG Care and Tube Feeding training course covers the basics on correct feed and medication administration, nutrition via NG or PEG tubes, management and general daily care of both the patient and the equipment.

Programme/Course Content

- What is an NG or PEG tube?
- Indications for use specifically relating to nutrition and feeding
- Insertion and change procedures
- Potential complications that might occur
- Care and management of an NG or PEG tube
- Feed and Medication Administration
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Each of our courses can be tailored to meet your team's requirements, whether introductory, intermediate or advanced. We can design the ideal solution to accommodate your team's ability, knowledge, practical experience and previous training.

Accreditation: Compliant with the National Occupation Standards for Health and Social Care Workers and satisfies the requirements of the Care Quality Commission

Further information: As with all our training courses our NG and PEG care and management training course is evidenced based and intended to keep both the patient / service and the member of staff / organisation safe from harm.

If you are looking for a training course that ensures best practice and compliance then please contact us to discuss your training requirements.