

CLINICAL SKILLS & MANAGEMENT

Venipuncture

This Venepuncture / Phlebotomy training course is a genuinely essential programme for employees working in health and social care environments. A series of practical exercises are combined with the latest theoretical teachings to enable delegates to provide better service to their patients.

Programme/Course Content

- Venepuncture / Phlebotomy
- Service user identification
- Service user consent
- Universal precautions
- Site selection
- Tourniquet procedure
- Post Venepuncture / Phlebotomy care
- Potential problems which may be encountered and solutions
- Labelling
- Practical Venepuncture / Phlebotomy instruction and practice with manikin arms
- Assessment
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Employees working in health and social care environments.

Accreditation: OFQUAL Level 3 Award in Clinical Skills (Venepuncture) (QCF)

Further information: The course has been built to serve as an introduction to the subject of Venepuncture / Phlebotomy for those approaching the practice for the first time, along with existing workers in need of a refresher course or looking for a better understanding of modern practices.

Guardian Angels Training is pleased to offer all delegates attending our Venepuncture / Phlebotomy training the opportunity to enrol upon the highest certification currently available for Venepuncture/ Phlebotomy in the United Kingdom. Guardian Angels Training is one of only a few expert training providers able to offer the nationally recognised and approved qualification in Venepuncture / Phlebotomy. The Venepuncture / Phlebotomy qualification available through Guardian Angels Training is the Level 3 Award in Clinical Skills: Venepuncture (QCF).

Please get in touch today to make a booking, or for more information about this or any of our courses.