

CLINICAL SKILLS & MANAGEMENT

Wound Care

This professional Wound Care training course is suitable for those with at least a basic knowledge in the subject of wound care. Delegates will learn about the various wound types, legal matters surrounding wound care, recording of treatment, healing stages and more.

Programme/Course Content

- Subject knowledge assessment
- Professional, legal and ethical issues of wound management
- Wound etiology
- Wound types
- Wound phases / healing
- Factors affecting healing
- Dressing types and selection
- Summary and evaluation

Aimed at: Health and social care workers

Accreditation: Compliant with the National Occupation Standards for Health and Social Care Workers and satisfies the requirements of the Care Quality Commission

Further information: For delegates interested in studying wound care a little deeper, the course's duration can be extended up to 3 days in order to make time for more advanced elements to be introduced. other topics can be included such as Leg Ulcer Management.

Other courses that might be of interest is our Pressure Area Care course, this represents an excellent starting point for those wishing to then expand their learning alongside this Wound Care training program.

Please get in touch today to make a booking, or for more information about this or any of our courses.