

CLINICAL SKILLS & MANAGEMENT

Ear Irrigation (3 to 6 hours)

This ear irrigation course supports healthcare assistants and registered nurses to provide basic ear care, including irrigation safely and effectively. Delegates on this course are required to gain supervision from an appropriate mentor to support their learning and practical application in the workplace.

Programme/Course Content

- Anatomy and physiology of the outer, middle and inner ear
- Otoscopy
- Ear wax
- Ear drops
- Cholesteatoma
- Perforations
- Consent and documentation
- Contraindications to ear irrigation
- Decontamination of equipment
- Ear irrigation procedure
- Accountability
- Tinnitus
- Role of the mentor

Aimed at: Healthcare assistants and Registered Nurses

Accreditation: Meets the National Occupational Standards and the Nursing and Midwifery (NMC) and Care Quality Commission (CQC) standards

Further information: If you are looking for a cost-effective way to gain certification in ear irrigation then contact us today either via telephone or email.